Terms and conditions

This receipt form records the physical transfer and legal transfer of title of the item/s from the owner, or the owner's representative, to the Museum.

Care

- 1. The Museum will provide care and protection of the item/s. It will provide a suitable repository for the object(s), maintain and preserve the object(s) in accordance with standard museum and archival practices.
- 2. The Museum does not accept liability for loss of, damage to, or deterioration in the item/s except in the case of gross negligence on the part of employees of the Museum.

Donation/gift

- 1. The owner, or the owner's representative, understands that the Museum may not wish to accept the offer of any or all the item/s listed overleaf. Returned items will be clearly indicated on the form.
- 2. The Museum will act in accordance with the Code of Ethics and Professional Practice 2013, (Museums Aotearoa).
- 3. The Museum will assess each item under the terms of its own Collection/Acquisition Policy, which limits the items that it may acquire.
- 4. The donation/gift agreement is a transfer of ownership. The owner is gifting the item to the Museum absolutely, to be used or disposed of as the Museum's governing body sees fit without restriction, including display, preservation, retention, or disposal of the property involved, either now or in the future and in accordance with the Code of Ethics and Professional Practice 2013, (Museums Aotearoa), The Protected Objects Act 1975, Mammals Protection Act 1978, Wildlife Act 1953.
- 5. Please note that the Museum cannot accept a gift with other conditions attached, except in exceptional situations.
- 6. Should the Museum decline the offer of donation/gift, the owner, or the owner's representative, will be notified in writing and a time will be suggested for return of the item/s. If this option has been selected, owners are requested to collect items not more that one month after notification. Items not collected after that time, when all reasonable attempts to contact depositor have been made, will be disposed of by the Museum.
- 7. The donor assigns any copyright interest to the Museum and waives the owner's moral rights (if any) under the Copyright Act 1994 in favour of the Museum unless otherwise noted as a special condition.
- 8. The Museum will make the object(s) available to qualified researchers without restriction and subject to the Museum's standard practices and in compliance with the copyright laws of New Zealand. This includes copies of materials for the purposes of research, exhibition, publication, and interpretation.
- 9. Any restrictions on public access to donated object(s) must be approved by the Museum and noted on this form.
- 10. The Museum may return or dispose, according to the donor's stipulations, object(s) which are determined by the Museum's governing body to have no permanent value or historical interest, or which the Museum cannot properly house or preserve.
- 11. The Museum cannot give valuations.
- 12. The donor may provide a credit line for use when the object is displayed.
